THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (c) Illegal infiltration from across the Bangladesh border has been a great source of concern to every section of Indian Society, particularly to women and children. This issue was discussed during the DG level talks between BSF abd BDR held on 28th April-3rd May, 2004. BSF soldiers are actively vigilant to prevent the trafficking women and children. DG, BSF deeply shared his concern with DG, BDR, for this crime against humanity. He informed DG, BDR that BSF was actively involved in combating illegal trafficking of women and children with other Government and Non-Govenment agencies of India. To prevent infiltration and women trafficking across the Bangladesh border, the BSF
